- ❖ Some of you have noticed that a different person has started doing this bulletin. I've heard from several people who were confused by the fact that the voicemail number printed at the bottom of the page remains the same. This is an internet number that was set up specifically to receive messages for the bulletin. If you call this number, you can only leave a message, and I receive the recorded message by email. Talk to me if you have questions or ideas concerning the bulletin. -Rosalie Beiler
